Projects

PuppR

Live Github

PuppR uses the PetFinder API to connect shelter pets and aspiring owners in this iOS application. Though I helped with the React Native front-end, I predominantly worked on the Rails API backend.

Set Card Game

Live Github

Created an online game in 48 hours that tests a users ability to find and create sets of cards. Using Ruby on Rails, I wrote an algorithm for checking if there were any possible sets on the board.

Cheapeats

Live Github

Web application that defaults user searches with a filter on cheapest places with highest reviews. Using Ruby on Rails and CSS, I tied into Yelp's API to return the best combinations.

Work Experience

Dec 2015 - Aug 2017

PHH Mortgage - Financial Analyst

- Split one unorganized Income Statement into four clean Income Statements and tracked $4M marketing budget with 6 regional managers that saved time and $1.5M.
- Within one month of hire, rebuilt 5 archaic reports (Income Statements, Variance Analysis Reports, Year Over Year Reports) in our new program developed by Oracle. Reports were built dynamically and were easily manipulated (previously very rigid). Had no direction on how to build the reports, as no one had used Oracle before.

July 2013 - Dec 2015

Further Enterprise Solutions, LLC - Finance Specialist

- Reported directly to CFO and CEO with generated weekly cash forecasts.
- Managed a rolling $4M accounts receivable, was able to generate over $1M of overdue payments in less than a year.
- Maintained 4000+ lines in excel for site IDs, and created purchase order database for over 75K invoices
- Managed payroll for over 100 employees.

Nov 2009 - May 2012

Fulton Bank of New Jersey - Teller

- Met monthly goals for opening credit cards and business accounts.
- Processed over 40 transactions per hour without discrepancies.
- Built and maintained customer relationships.

Education

May 2017 - Oct 2017

Dev Bootcamp - Web Development Immersive

May 2013

Rutgers University - Bachelor of Accounting and Finance

May 2010

Camden County College - Associate in Literature, Philosophy and Art
